

Morgan County Virtual Academy

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What platform will be used for virtual school?

All students and teachers in Morgan County Schools will be using Schoology as a Learning Management System (LMS). Classwork, grades, parent communication, and curriculum will be delivered through this platform. The single sign on feature will eliminate the need to sign in to multiple apps. Classes will be taught by Morgan County teachers using the West Virginia Department of Education standards.

Q. What is the daily schedule?

Daily schedules for courses will be set by the schools/teachers and communicated to families. We will do our best to be flexible to meet families' needs.

Q. How much time do students work online each day?

The time spent online each day will vary by what is appropriate for student age. Generally, elementary students can expect 1-2 hours of online engagement. Middle-level and high school students can expect 2.5-3.5 hours online per day.

Q. Can virtual school students participate in extracurricular activities?

Yes. Virtual school students are treated the same as brick and mortar students with respect to eligibility and participation in extracurricular activities.

Q. Can students with IEPs or 504 plans enroll in virtual school?

A student's IEP or 504 plan must be reviewed to determine whether the necessary accommodations can be provided virtually.

Q. Will virtual school students be required to participated in the general summative assessment?

Yes. Virtual school students will be held to the same testing requirements as brick and mortar students.

Q. Is it five days per week?

Yes. All Morgan County students will need to be engaged in learning five days per week.

Q. Will students get to engage with one another online?

Yes. There will be opportunities for synchronous (live) class meetings.

Q. Are all subjects taught online in elementary?

Yes. All subjects will be available.

Q. Are all subjects taught online in middle/secondary?

Every attempt will be made to offer all students online at the middle and secondary levels. Some electives may have limited availability.

Q. Can students still attend James Rumsey Technical Institute or Blue Ridge Community and Technical College?

Yes. Morgan County Virtual Academy students can still participate in courses at JRTI and BRCTC.
